FOOD AND WINE

“We love brewing Craft Beer because beer makes people happy”™

Where the Saluda and Broad Rivers merge, they form the mighty Congaree in ColaTown, SC. Named for the three rivers that run through our city and the working class people who labored on the canal here more than a century ago, River Rat Brewery was founded in 2013. The rivers tell us old stories and history of our state and our capital, Columbia, SC as they were the supplying highways of times long ago. The Congaree, Broad and Saluda rivers contribute miles of riverfront for South Carolina’s capital and had a role in Columbia’s landscape history. In their honor, we set out to create craft beers that would satisfy anyone’s thirst after a long day’s work. We use only the best ingredients, and we tested and refined in order to develop complex flavors. What we wound up with was the best damn beer we’ve ever tasted – perfectly balanced, refreshingly bold, and deliciously drinkable.

We proudly work with local and sustainable farms

Heritage Field Farms, Freshly Grown Farms, Bee Trail Honey Farms, Congaree Milling Company, Cottle Farms, City Roots, Lee Sausage Company, Manchester Farms, Titan Farms, Schrote Farms, and Vertical Roots Farms.

Thanks for visiting River Rat Brewery.

Please order at the bar.
